

Hay Creek Hiking Trail

The Hay Creek hiking trail begins and ends near the Visitor Center. It is approximately 1.5 miles long and winds through a forested area to the Hay Creek Flowage. An observation platform is located on the south shore of the flowage. From this view you may see ducks, geese, herons, and osprey which sometime next on the osprey platform on the east end of the flowage.

